CUSTOMS AND TAX ADMINISTRATION OF THE KINGDOM OF DENMARK
(SKATTEFORVALTNINGEN) TAX REFUND
SCHEME LITIGATION

Request for International Judicial Assistance

This document relates to All Cases.

The United States District Court for the Southern District of New York presents its compliments to the appropriate judicial authority of the Cayman Islands, and requests international judicial assistance to obtain evidence to be used in a civil proceeding before this court in the above captioned matter. This request is made under the Convention of 18 March 1970 on the Taking of Evidence Abroad in Civil or Commercial Matters.

This Court requests the assistance described herein as necessary in the interests of justice. The assistance requested is that the appropriate judicial authority of the Cayman Islands compel Genesis Trust & Corporate Services Ltd. (“Genesis”) to provide the documents set forth below for use at trial or in a dispositive motion.

PERSON TO BE SERVED

1. Genesis Trust & Corporate Services Ltd., Elgin Court, Elgin Avenue, George Town, Grand Cayman KY1-1106, Cayman Islands.

BACKGROUND REGARDING THIS CIVIL PROCEEDING

2. In May and June 2018, Plaintiff Skatteforvaltningen (“SKAT”) filed 140 similar complaints in eleven different federal judicial districts. On October 3, 2018, the federal complaints were consolidated in this Multi-District Litigation (“MDL”) and assigned to the Honorable Lewis A. Kaplan. On February 26, 27, and 29, 2019, SKAT filed 43 additional complaints, which were consolidated into the MDL assigned to Judge Kaplan. On November 19, 2019, SKAT filed an additional related complaint, which has also been incorporated into the MDL.

3. This case stems from an allegedly fraudulent tax refund scheme to deceive SKAT into paying out over 12.7 billion Danish Kroner (“DKK”), the equivalent of approximately $2.1 billion (US) of allegedly withheld dividend tax. Over 300 entities falsely claimed tax refunds from SKAT (the “SKAT Refund Claimants”). The SKAT Refund Claimants purported to own shares in Danish companies listed on the OMX Copenhagen 20 Index, the 20 most-traded stocks in Denmark. Danish companies are required to withhold 27% tax on dividends they pay to shareholders. Under certain double taxation treaties between Denmark and other countries, including the United States, this tax is reimbursable to certain non-Danish shareholders. SKAT Refund Claimants that were based in the United States, along with certain of their affiliated individuals, are the Defendants in this MDL.

4. The SKAT Refund Claimants, acting through their agents and representatives, applied to SKAT claiming repayments of tax withheld on dividends that they purported to have earned on shares of Danish companies that they claimed to hold. These applications are alleged to have been fraudulent because the claimants did not own the shares that they claimed to own, did not earn the dividends they claimed to have earned, and were not entitled to the tax refunds they claimed. Based on the allegedly fraudulent tax refund claims submitted by the Defendants in the MDL, SKAT asserts that it paid baseless withholding tax refund claims of approximately $1,234,288,400 (US).

5. The Defendants effectuated the scheme by appointing agents to apply to SKAT for refunds in respect of shares in Danish companies that they did not own. The Defendants each submitted refund claims seeking the full 27% withholding tax that had allegedly been withheld from distributions on shares of Danish companies the claimants purported to own. These claims were submitted through payment agents, which in turn submitted the claims by mail or email transmission to SKAT. Each entity claiming a withholding tax refund submitted to SKAT a “credit advice,” “income advice,” “tax voucher,” or similar document created by a custodian that purported to show the claimant’s ownership of shares in Danish companies listed on the OMX Copenhagen 20 Index.

6. The Defendants are alleged to have used an entity for whom Genesis acts or previously acted as a corporate services provider (“CSP”) in the Cayman Islands (the “Cayman Third Party”) to conduct the fraudulent transactions that purport to evidence the Defendants’ purchase of shares, and to channel the refund payments from SKAT in a way that obfuscated the true beneficiaries of the refund claims. SKAT alleges that the Cayman Third Party was ultimately owned by, controlled by, and/or operated for the benefit of the Defendants in these proceedings and in related proceedings in other jurisdictions.

7. The Cayman Third Party is: Omega Investments, LP.

SKAT’S FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

8. The allegations in SKAT’s complaints in the consolidated actions are substantially similar. SKAT brought complaints against the Defendants that submitted fraudulent dividend withholding tax refund claims to SKAT and various individuals and entities who formed partnerships with Defendants, helped structure the dividend withholding tax refund scheme, and coordinated the submission of fraudulent tax refund claims to SKAT. The complaints allege that between 2012 and 2015, Defendants submitted fraudulent requests for tax refunds to SKAT. Plaintiff SKAT asserts claims for fraud, aiding and abetting fraud, payment by mistake, unjust enrichment, negligent misrepresentation, and related claims. SKAT's case is that the Defendants used the Cayman Third Party and other offshore companies to advance their fraudulent scheme and conceal their involvement in it.

THIS COURT HAS GRANTED SKAT'S REQUEST TO ASSIST IN THE PROCURING OF EVIDENCE ABROAD

9. On April 27, 2020, SKAT filed a motion with this Court seeking the Court's assistance in facilitating discovery in respect of the Cayman Third Party from Genesis. That motion was granted by this Court on June 30, 2020.

10. Under principles of international comity, this Court writes to request that Genesis be required to provide SKAT the documents set forth below for use at trial or in a dispositive motion. These documents are likely to demonstrate that Defendants in these proceedings and in related proceedings in other jurisdictions owned, controlled, or were benefited by the operation of the Cayman Third Party, and will also reveal the relationships between the Cayman Third Party and Defendants in the common fraudulent scheme. Confirmation that Defendants in these proceedings and in related proceedings in other jurisdictions owned, controlled, or benefited from the operation of the Cayman Third Party and the relationship between the Defendants and the Cayman Third Party bears directly on SKAT's case against the Defendants, and, therefore, their disclosure is necessary for the purposes of justice.

DOCUMENTS AND INFORMATION TO BE PRODUCED

11. On the application of SKAT, to be made by Kobre & Kim (Cayman), Genesis should be required to produce, in respect of the Cayman Third Party, the following documents:

- a. Certificate of registration;

- b. Declaration filed by the general partners to effect registration of the limited partnership pursuant to section 49 of the Partnership Law (2013 Revision);
  - c. Declaration filed by the general partners pursuant to section 51 of the Partnership Law (2013 Revision);
  - d. Books of Account;
  - e. Records identifying the beneficial owners pursuant to the Anti-Money Laundering Regulations;
  - f. Customer due diligence records obtained by Genesis pursuant to the Anti-Money Laundering Regulations;
  - g. Correspondence between clients of record and Genesis;
  - h. Correspondence between partners and Genesis;
  - i. Agreements for the provision of corporate services between Genesis and the Cayman Third Party, or those acting on its behalf; and
  - j. Invoices issued by Genesis to the Cayman Third Party, or those acting on its behalf, and payment records showing the payment of such invoices, including but not limited to:
    - i. the bank details from which payments were made
    - ii. supporting information to enable payments to be made including payee due diligence records obtained.
12. All documents should be duly marked for identification.
13. A director or other authorized person of Genesis should be ordered to provide an affidavit certifying that the documents produced were kept in the ordinary course of business, in substantially the form attached as Schedule A hereto (“Business Records Certification”).

14. If, for any reason, it is not possible for a director or other authorized person to provide a Business Records Certification, a director or other authorized person of Genesis should be ordered to provide oral testimony under oath on the areas of inquiry set out in Schedule B before an examiner appointed by the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands.
